TIGERS SLUG ANDALUSIA

It may be the end of an era for the Andalusia Bulldogs, but it's the beginning of an era for the Elba Tigers.

The Elba Tigers claimed their biggest win in many years last Friday night when they totally dominated the Andalusia Bulldogs enroute to a stunning 34-19 victory. The win gave the Tigers a final record of 8-5, while the loss left Andalusia with an 8-1 chart. The loss ended Andalusia's 18-game winning streak, and knocked the defending state champions out of playoff contention.

A capacity crowd was on hand for the game, to watch the two rivals battle it out on the banks of the Pea, and a battle it was! Elba received the opening kick and on the first play of the game, full-back Jeff Stewart ripped through a gaping hole for a 19-yard gain. However, the drive was short-lived, and Elba was forced to punt.

Andalusia took over on their 20-yard line and began an 80-yard, 12-play drive that would end in the game's first touchdown. The initial 10 plays all came on the ground, as the speedy Bulldog backs gobbled up large chunks of real estate. The score came with 4:18 left in the first quarter on a 15-yard run by Joe Hall, and following the extra point by Bert Pierce, the Bulldogs were on top 7-0.

Elba put the ball in play at their 32-yard line following the ensuing kick and thrilled their fans by marching 68 yards in only 8 plays to tie the score at 7-7. Don Horstead ripped for 13 yards on the drive's initial play, and four plays later Jeff Stewart rambled 21 yards to give Elba a first down at the Andalusia 18-yard line. The drive appeared to bog down, however, and two plays later, Elba faced a third and 12 at the 30-yard line. Don Horstead got the call, and after taking a pitch-out from Marty Marler, rolled to his right. The Andy defender came up to stop the sophomore speedster, but Horstead calmly flipped a pass to Morgan Morrow and it was an Elba touchdown! Gary Bradshaw added the extra point and with 1:11 left in the first quarter Elba had tied the game at 7-7.

Andalusia was plagued by penalties on their next possession, and was forced to punt. Elba took over on their own 35-yard line and promptly drove 61 yards in 6 plays to take the lead for good. Jeff Stewart, returning to action after a 7-week absence due to a broken collarbone, got the call on two of the initial three plays, and responded with runs of 26 and 18 yards to move the ball to the Andy 14-yard line. Two plays later, Marty Marler hit Russ Wood on a 9-yard scoring pass and Elba had gone ahead! Bradshaw's p.a.t. was true and Elba had taken a surprising 14-7 lead with 7:29 left in the half.

The Elba defense stopped Andalusia on its next possession and the Tiger offense started rolling, only to be stopped by a fumble. However, Elba's Alan King got the ball right back when he intercepted a Bulldog pass at the Elba 34-yard line. The Elba fans expected the Tigers to run out the clock and go in at half-time with a 14-7 lead, but the Tigers had different plans. Jeff Stewart bulled for 3 yards on the first play, and then Don Horstead broke loose and scampered 34 yards. With time running out, the Elba coaches called time-out and decided to try a new play. Russ Wood took a handoff on an apparent "end around," but Wood stopped, and letted a 59-yard touchdown pass to Perry Fuller as the crowd went wild! The extra point failed, but with :35 left in the half, Elba had surged to an unbelievable 20-7 lead.

Neither team could move on their initial possession of the second half, but Andalusia got cranked up on their second possession and scored to cut the lead to 20-13. The touchdown drive covered 57 yards in 8 plays and was aided by a 15-yard penalty against the Tigers. The score came with 3:40 left in the third quarter on a 5-yard run by Leon Hattaway, but the two-point conversion failed as Elba's lead remained at 20-13.

Elba put the ball in play at their 32-yard line following the ensuing kick and again marched forward only to be stopped inches short. The drive came primarily on the ground, with Horstead and Stewart having to take a back-seat to quarterback Marty Marler who gained 20 yards on two option plays. The Tigers moved to a first and goal at the 1-yard line, but failed to cash in and fell inches short.

Andalusia took over and attempted to run out of trouble, but Elba's Richie Brown hit the Bulldog's Leon Hattaway in the endzone and the Tigers had a safety. With 10:03 left in the game, Elba's lead stood at 22-13.

Elba got the ball right back on a free kick, and this time was not to be denied! Jeff Stewart blasted for 22 yards on the initial two plays, and two plays later, Don Horstead raced 26 yards into the endzone for an Elba touchdown. The extra point was blocked, but it made little difference as the Elba lead was up to 28-13 with 8:11 left in the game.

Andalusia knocked the Tigers back down to earth three plays later, however, as Lex Short fired a 74-yard scoring strike to Stanley Shankspear. The two-point conversion again failed, and with 7:06 left in the game, the Elba lead had been cut to 28-19.

The Tigers seemed to care little about the sudden score, and came right back to march 52 yards for yet another touchdown! Don Horstead and Jeff Stewart continued to run wild against the "highly-touted" Bulldog defense, and moved to the Andalusia 10-yard line only to be pushed back by a clipping penalty. With everyone expecting a run, Marty Marler dropped back and hit Russ Wood for a 17-yard gain. Andy was guilty of piling on, the play, and Elba was in business with a first down at the Bulldog 13-yard line. Two plays later, Marty Marler sneaked over from one yard out, and with 5:04 left in the game, it was all over but the shouting as Elba took a 34-19 lead.

Elba's Mike Harrelson intercepted an Andalusia pass and returned it 49 yards for an apparent score, but the line run was nullified by a clip, far back upfield.

It made no difference, however, because when the clock reached 0:00 Elba was on top 34-19 with the biggest win of the year!

COLORED INK

POOR ORIGINAL

BRAINSTORMS

WITH FERRIN COX

It is time to select our public office holders, and this time it isn't just nominating a party candidate - it is for real. None of the local county races are contested and the only other races causing any stir are the race for 2nd District Representative and the race for the U. S. Senate seat of the late Jim Allen. The governor's race is really not contested, and even Republican Hunt concedes he has a slim chance of winning over Democrat Fob James. We have made no secret of our support of Republican Bill Dickinson over the years. We hate to choose between him and Wendell Mitchell - also a friend, but we must, Dickinson votes conservative - just like the majority of us in the Wiregrass want him to vote; he supports the military - a mainstay of Wiregrass economy; he supports the farmers - Dickinson was the man who kept the wiregrass farmers from going bankrupt; he supports the wiregrass farmers when they went to Washington seeking help. Labor union management doesn't like Dickinson and we feel this is wrong; they got upset when Dickinson sponsored a bill to take food stamps from strikers, and what he says he meant was that the welfare food should be for those not able to work and buy food, and not for able-bodied folks who could work. This is basic Wiregrass thinking, and is not anti-union. We don't personally need special help from Washington to get out an ELBA CLIPPER, but we know many people who have needed help from Washington and Bill Dickinson has ALWAYS been there and ready to help. What more can we ask?

We know and like Donald Stewart and continue to support him for the U. S. Senate. Republican Jim Martin's flip-flopping from one opponent to another, seeking the weaker of the two, has turned us off with fear he may flip-flop in Washington. "Someone" circulated the word that Stewart has suffered a breakdown - this Martin denied doing. Then some circulated Court records showing a lawsuit charging Martin with wrongly taking over $100,000 from some business partners. Of course, Stewart didn't do this, and Martin folks point out the case was reversed by the Supreme Court on a technicality. We understand it was finally settled out of court. Except for the Dickinson vote, we intend to follow the Democratic line. This is not because they are Democratic candidates, but because we feel they are the best for the office.

The amendments are very confusing to most voters because they are not understood. Yet one editor is in this confused bunch. The so-called Lill Bill or Amendment 1 is the big one this time. It will probably pass because it carries the weight of a tax bill, however, from what I can read and hear, the bill is a bad bill and shouldn't be passed without some improvements. We want lower taxes as bad as anyone, but not bad enough to get bitten by a rattlesnake just to get lower taxes, therefore, we are going to throw away our vote and vote "no." Next we will see a bunch of lawsuits on this matter.

Number 5 concerns Coffee County and should be passed. It allows for the combining of the Tax Assessor and Tax Collector offices two years from now. This will cut down on the confusion and save the taxpayers in money. It is one of the few local amendments that allows the local voters to have the final say-so. We salute Representative Jimmy Holley for the bill, and for reserving the final OK for the local voters. Vote yes, please!

Numbers 2 and 3 also get yes votes. No. 2 allows the sale of bonds to build prisons that are badly needed. No. 3 is to correct legal problems concerning the changing of city charters - it also gets a yes from me.

The others - 4, 6, 7, 8 and 9 don't allow the local cities and counties to have the final decision, and we strongly vote "no" because we don't feel we have the right to decide for them. If you don't want to vote no, just don't vote at all.

A Coffee County citizen came to us recently and asked if we had any reports of any UFO's. When we said no, then he said, "Well, then," he and his family hadn't either. "This meant he wasn't going to have his name spread around as the one with the big imagination." He did admit seeing the lights, but would deny the whole story in public. You look tonight.

If anyone hasn't heard - Elba won a sweet victory last Friday night by defeating the Andy Bulldogs to top their winning streak at 58. "Cousin Ed" Dannelly, former publisher of the Andalusia Star News, and the originator of the name "Foggy Bottom" for Elba, has warned for years that Andalusia was in trouble when they got down next to the Pea River and that fog started rolling in. Nowadays, Elba fog is over before it gets cold and foggy, but the warning still has meaning. There are several short descriptions that will sum up the attitudes of Elba folks that night. (1) - Andy. "If we could play one more quarter, we could beat Elba - the players would beat their teammates to death they were so enthusiastic." (2) The Elba fans stood up and yelled on the kickoff and didn't sit down or hush until the game ended. (3) Fans are proud of their team when they fall for four plays to move the ball one foot and get a standing ovation when they have to give up the ball. Actually, Elba fans cheered every time a substitution was made on the Elba team, and quite often between times. We can't end without a word of praise for the Andalusia fans, players and coaches. They were, of course, upset with losing, but they showed real class about the whole thing... I might not have been able to do that.

Fire Hits Elba Firm Monday Night

Elba firemen responded to a fire Monday night at the combined offices of King Office Supply, King Construction and King Real Estate. They found the building burning within the space between the first and second floor of the downtown building. It took several hours and many gallons of water to stop the smoldering fire.

Shortly after arriving at the scene of the downtown fire, firemen received call of another fire on Caroline Street. Dispatching a third unit to this area, firemen soon discovered it was a false alarm. This call is under investigation by the Elba Police Department.

The heavy smoke and fighting fire in tight corners caused the Elba firemen to call on Opp and Fl. Rucker for additional air tanks for firemen. One fireman suffered a badly cut hand when a window pane broke and fire Chief Lloyd Driggers suffered an injury to his elbow when a short ladder fell from under him.

Real Estate agent Bobby King reported the building was undamaged, and they had no insurance on the contents of the building.

The supplies of the office supply department were heavily damaged by fire, smoke and water. A collection of books stored in an upstairs room was completely destroyed.

The Elba Fire Department and the State Fire Marshall are investigating the blaze but have announced no cause for the Monday night blaze.

The sergeant's wife, Bonnie, is with him at the fort.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Cox:

The Mayor and Council are to be commended for unanimously adopting at their last meeting, a project which can give Elba its greatest economic boost in many years. In addition to creating approximately 75 new jobs, the project will produce nearly $900,000 of construction directly and will contribute to additional construction which will raise the figure to well over a million dollars. Better than a manufacturer which pays practically no local sales tax, this center will produce an estimated $100,000 in new city revenue - without raising the tax rate.

Since the council's action, I have been appalled by the "polling" against the center. At the same time, I have been encouraged by the relatively small number of special interests involved in the opposition and the large numbers who have commented favorably on the council's action.

Traditionally, those who oppose always express their views with a disproportionate amount of volume and alarm while those who agree seem content with silence. The only negative factor which I have heard expressed is fear of danger from increased traffic to the center. It is hoped that each individual member of these boards will take responsibility to the community. Until we all work together, forgetting our individual preferences for the benefit of the whole community, Elba will continue to be left behind.

Someone's insurance premiums pay the cost of the project for three years? L. S. Rainer, Jr.

Dear Mr. Cox:

Liberal, liberal, liberal! I am so tired of hearing Jim Martin say that about everybody and everything. He said it about Lurien Wallace (I) calling her a Kennedy-Johnson liberal. He has used it time and time again.

The truth is Alabamians are just as opposed to "liberals" as Jim Martin thinks they are. It's just they don't buy his calling good men by that name just to suit his political ambitions.

He says he's an old distributor in Gadsden, it must be snake oil Daniel Whaley.

Burial be in the Elba Cemetery, Alabama 36116.

Survivors include her husband, Owen Ziglar, two sons, Mike Ziglar and Spence Ziglar, all of Elba; two daughters, Mrs. Elba Driggers, Tuscaloosa, and Miss Lynn Ziglar of Elba; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frank Prescott of Elba.

Property Tax Can Now Paid

He also stated that the sale of automobile tags were down, and that the deadline for purchasing tags will be November 15. A late charge will added when tags are bought after the deadline. Everyone is urged to buy their tags before the deadline.

would ever equal progress to the safety of children, however our city Police Force has built an exemplary record of protecting our children in school traffic through the years and I believe that they are capable of continuing this fine performance.

The home owners in the area, with only one exception, have all readily and enthusiastically signed the waiver enabling the property to be used for a shopping center. They have commented that they would be glad to see the "holes filled up" and "the place cleaned up."

For practically my entire adult life I have heard Elbaans say, "Enterprise wants to get everything." And they have gotten almost everything they wanted because they have worked together as a community, forgetting their individual special interests in order to build a bigger, better Enterprise.

Another case of fast-walking and fast-talking is the Mitchell claim that Naval and Marine helicopter training at Fort Rucker would be ready to have occurred "if we didn't have a Democratic Congressman from Ft. Rucker." Most folks who can "realize that the hang up is in the Senate, Cong. Dickinson has always carried his colleagues with him by large margins in the House in spite of Rep. Bob Sike's strong opposition. Finally I would like to say that as a member of the Association of the U. S. Army I appreciate what Rep. Dickinson has done for Fort Rucker and I appreciate his accepting the invitation to speak at the quarterly meeting of our 1200 strong, tax-paying members. How does Mr. Mitchell have the gall to criticize Cong. Dickinson under the circumstances that existed when Mitchell can't even down a simple apartment for three years?

Dear Mr. Cox:

Thank you for your support and the coverage you gave me during my campaign for Secretary of State. The endorsement was certainly a factor in my getting 71% of the vote to win the Democratic nomination. I am confident that a large number of the people who voted for me did so due to your coverage telling of my interest in changing some of Alabama's election laws.

The Secretary of State has many duties that relate to the elections process. This coupled with my experience as Executive Director of the Alabama Democratic Party and the Election Law Commission, gives me the jurisdiction and the background to try to get some changes made. I look forward to working with you in the years ahead to accomplish some positive, common sense reforms.

My thanks again to you and your readers for your support.
Sincerely,
Don Siegelman

Dear Mr. Cox:

It seems Jim Martin doesn't think much of us in South Alabama. In an interview printed in the "Pittville Progress", (October 3, 1966) during his race against Lurien Wallace he said, "It seems the people of North Alabama have thought this election through, but in this area people are more emotional and don't seem to think things out as well. I don't mean, of course, that the people here are ignorant but it's just that you have a more informed class of people, say, in Huntsville than in parts of South Alabama."

Well, Mr. Jim Martin, I am just as informed as any "class" of people in Huntsville and I'm voting against you. You are right, I am emotional. I feel it with PLEASURE.

Dear Mr. Cox:

It seems like every five minutes Jim Martin is on TV saying "Get Washington off our backs." What he really means is, "Get me back in Washington." It's funny for a man who says "get Washington off our backs" to call out the Washington crowd, Gerald Ford, Robert Dole, etc., to campaign for him. To twist a phrase, he was a lousy representative again.

We have a perfect opportunity in Donald Stewart to do exactly what Sam Buba advised the South many years ago, Elect 'em young, elect 'em honest, and then keep them there."

Many of the merchants in downtown Elba decorated their stores for the recent homecoming activities. Their efforts were judged and certificates were presented to the top three by the Chi Alpha Mu and the FBLA clubs at Elba High School. First place went to

50's Day At EHS

The Varsity Cheerleaders sponsored a 50's day last Friday. Because it was our last game of the season, and spirits were high, everyone participated and had a lot of fun. There was a "demolish the bulldogs" 50's car parked in the parking lot. For a quarter, you could beat the "bull" out of Tommy Tamm.

Some of the "tough" kids in the neighborhood got together to battle it out. They had a tricycle race! The winners were The Dragons, and the T-Birds.

After the ball game, the cheerleaders sponsored a "sock hop" with a 50's dance contest. This was the grand finale of our great football season, and was a great success.

FHA Goes To Montgomery State Fair

Elba's FHA traveled to Montgomery to the South Alabama State Fair on Thursday, October 19. While there we viewed vocational exhibits by the Agriculture and Home Economics Departments from South Alabama.

After the fair, we went on a short shopping spree at Eastlake Mall, where some enjoyed ice skating. We would like to take this time to thank Mr. Lamar Foley and Mr. Lamar Wilson for driving the buses for us. Everyone enjoyed in this field trip.

You have all that the greatest of men had,
Two arms, two hands, two legs, and two eyes,
And a brain to use if you would be wise.
With this equipment they all began,
So start for the top and say, "I can."

Look them over the wise and the great
They take their food from a common plate
And similar knives and forks they use
With similar laces they tie their shoes.
The world considers them brave and smart,
But you're all they had when they made their start.
You can triumph and come to skill
You can be great if you only will.

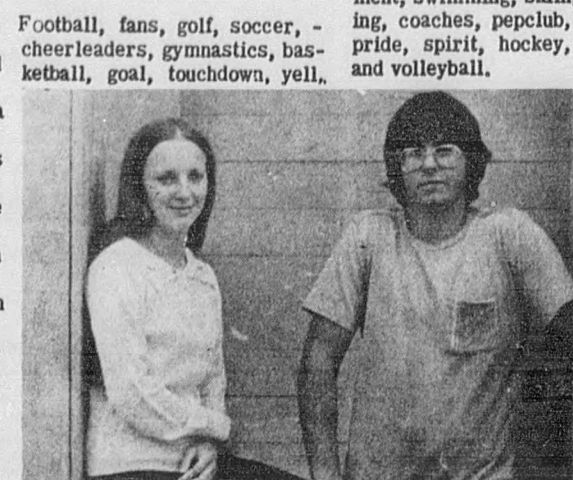

You are well-equipped for what you choose,
You have arms and legs and a brain to use.
And the man who has risen great deeds to do,
Began his life with no more than you.

You are the handicap you must face,
You are the one who must choose your place.
You must say where you want to go,
And how much you will study the truth to know.

God has equipped you to live, but lie
Lies you decide what you want to be.
Courage must come from the soul within
The man must furnish the will to win.

So figure it out for yourself my lad
You were born with all that the great have had,
With your equipment they all began
So get hold of yourself and say, "I can."

Agribusiness At Zion Chapel

A total of 104 students have enrolled in the five Agribusiness classes at Zion Chapel High School for the school year 1978-79. Instructor Lloyd A. Harvin states that the students are happy with a variety of subjects and types of instruction available in Agribusiness.

Upon entering Agribusiness, students explore the world of work, study, plant and animal science, and learn to use basic shop tools. Upon completion of the basic courses, the 11th and 12th grade students may select from a choice of sixteen agriculturally related subject areas for specialized study.

Mr. Harvin will be using demonstrations, field trips, films, shop practice, study guides and class discussions to assist his agribusiness students in understanding the varied skills in the field of Agribusiness. As the school year progresses, Mr. Harvin will assist the students in gaining practical experience by supervised practice projects at home or at school.

Agribusiness students are also active in the popular Youth organization, the Future Farmers of America or the FFA as it is commonly called. Instructor Harvin will serve as advisor to the group. Under the leadership of President Leslie Hussey, the club plans regular meetings on the third Friday of each month at 8:00 a.m.

During each meeting the membership will practice parliamentary procedure, conduct business sessions, and plan community service projects.

Active members of the FFA are eligible to take part in a wide variety of contest and award programs. Presently, Zion Chapel members are planning to enter livestock judging, agricultural mechanics, and public speaking.

THANK-YOU

In soon-to-be eleven years of teaching, I have never been as honored as I have been by the members of the REBEL 79 staff when they chose to dedicate the REBEL 79 to me. Working with the yearbook has and will continue to be a great deal of fun for me. Someday its a chore but it is always rewarding. My greatest rewards being that I get to work closely with a bunch of kids. Being the yearbook sponsor is part of a job that I love to do. I love to teach school--especially in Coffee County. All I can say to my staff is Thank You and hope that you understand the sincerity and warm feelings behind those words!

Facing God

PSALM 34:18 - "The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are open unto their cry."

In the darkness of night, a little boy who had been asleep for several hours, suddenly awakened and sat upright in the middle of the bed. He had been having a bad dream and, as he was rubbing his eyes, he whispered in a trembling voice to his dad that was in the bed next to him. "Daddy, are you there?" His fears were instantly relieved because there came the reassuring voice of his father. "Yes, Johnny, Daddy's here."

The little boy lay back down and remained silent for a moment. He was still thinking about the bad dream, and was concerned that it might be real. Once more he whispered, "Daddy, is your face toward me?" "Yes, my son, my face is toward your face," his father replied.

With that reassurance, the little boy closed his eyes and quickly fell back into slumber. His father was with him, and his father's face was toward his bed.

What a picture this is of the child of God and his relation to his Heavenly Father. David says in the 34th Psalm, "The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are open unto their cry." In any other place in the Psalms, he says, "Call upon me in the day of trouble, and I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me." So often our lives become so tangled, our minds so weighted down with worry and anxiety, our nerves so ragged, that we are almost afraid to face life another day. I am sure that many of us had this feeling as we came to the end of the day and the beginning of a new one. We need constantly to remind ourselves that God is with us in the darkness, and that His face is always "toward" us.

From this vantage point, we can imagine all the black nights of the years which lie before us which will fill our hearts with fear.

Let us find strength and comfort in the immovable assurance that God is already in those years. Through Christ, His eyes are the eyes of love, tenderness, and of deep compassion. Because of what Christ did for us - in Bethlehem, on Calvary's cross, in Joseph's tomb - God has turned His face toward us. As soon, my face is toward your face, He will be facing us.

With that reassurance, the little boy closed his eyes and quickly fell back into slumber. His father was with him, and his father's face was toward his bed.

What a picture this is of the child of God and his relation to his Heavenly Father. David says in the 34th Psalm, "The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are open unto their cry." All that was missing last Friday night was "Daddy Don't Meredit singing 'Turn Out the Lights, the Party's Over.' What a game! It was nothing but excitement from start to finish as Elba simply gave Andalusia an 'old-fashioned country whippin'." Except for Andy's first drive, the Tigers seemed in total charge all the way as they chalked up their 8th win of the year.

The Elba offense was again unstoppable and the return of Jeff Stewart made it better than ever. Before the game, I thought the key would be the play of quarterback Marty Marler. Well, Marty had an outstanding game! He passed well, ran well and did a good job of leading the team. I could talk about the game forever, but I'll save you the trouble and just say "We simply whipped 'em!"

Mike Capps and I went to the Pensacola Open last weekend, and though the field wasn't strong, we saw some excellent golf. Probably the best shot we saw came when Mac McClendon pitched to within 6 inches of the hole on the 15th hole to get a birdie and tie for the lead. The funniest thing came when we were sitting near the 17th green. Bob Lunn left his tee-shot short of the green on the par 3 hole, then left his pitch short and then left his par putt short! After making a bogey, Lunn angrily turned and threw his ball in the lake. But, it, too, was short and I went over and got me a brand new Titleist!

In Area football last week quite a few local teams saw their playoff hopes go down the drain. Samson, Enterprise and Hartford all lost, and fell out of the playoff picture. Brantley had a lot of trouble, but managed to beat Straugh for their seventh win, while Zion Chapel also had their hands full before edging Coffee Springs.

Luverne really poured it on Florida in somewhat of a surprise and Troy claimed its third straight win by dumping Brundidge.

Of course, the big news was Elba's win over Andalusia! (Just had to say it again).

Basketball is right around the corner, and I don't foresee any real powerhouses on the local scene. In Class A, Brantley should repeat as region champ, but could be surprised by Coach Charles Cole's New Brookton Gamecocks. In Jack, Coach Mike Lindsey should have a contender, and if they can put it all together they could be hard to beat.

Andalusia will finally get to start on time, but the Dogs will be young, and could have a long year. I guess Eufaula and Troy will again be the teams to beat.

Ye old Polish Prognosticator wraps up the regular season this week, and is looking to go out in style!

The Elba Country Club Course was lengthened for the tournament and par was lowered to 70, causing the hilly layout to play even more difficult than usual. The winners in each flight were:

Andy Coach

Speaks Highly

Of Tigers

Despite the pains of suffering their first loss in 58 games, Andalusia Coach Don Sharpe had nothing but praise for the Elba team.

"Our boys gave it everything they had and that's really all you can ask," said Sharpe. Coach Wood did an excellent job of preparing his football team. The Elba staff and players showed the poise, confidence and class that used to be found only at Andalusia High School. Elba got some breaks and took advantage of them. We got some breaks too, but just didn't take advantage of them."

Bears 14-8

The Zion Chapel Rebels continued their winning ways last week as they claimed a hard-fought 14-8 win over the Coffee Springs Golden Bears.

The win upped the Rebels' record to 7-2, while the loss dropped the Golden Bears' slate to 1-4.

The two Class A rivals battled to a 0-0 tie after one quarter of play as both defenses dominated play. The Rebels notched their first score with 7:56 left in the second quarter when halfback Cory Ward broke loose and rambled 50 yards to paydirt. The extra point failed, but Zion Chapel was on the scoreboard leading 6-0.

What proved to be the winning touchdown came in the closing minute of the half when fullback Leslie Hussey blasted over from one yard out. Ray Marler passed to Byron Foley for the two-point conversion to give the Bears a 14-0 lead at the half.

Coffee Springs finally got moving late in the third stanza, following a fumble recovery by Raymond Tyler at midfield. The Bears marched forward in their only offensive thrust of the night and scored on a 4-yard run by John Davis Weeks. David Tyler passed to Mark Threat for the two-point conversion, and with 5:21 left in the third quarter, the Golden Bears had pulled within striking distance, trailing only 14-8.

Coffee Springs began another drive midway through the final stanza and moved into Rebel territory before fumbling away the opportunity at the 22 3/4-yard line.

Zion Chapel moved down the field following the fumble recovery and moved down the field only to fumble the ball back at the Golden Bear 20-yard line. Coffee Springs went to the airways in the final seconds, but couldn't connect, and at the final

BY RICKY MULARZ

(Based loosely on a poem by Ernest Thayer)

It looked extremely rocky for the Elba team that night. Their foes were from Andalusia, a squad of strength and might. The Bulldogs, coached by Donnie Sharpe were known throughout the state. And everyone who'd seen them play, agreed the Dogs were great!

The Elba boys were young and small, and some fans called them meek. But the boys had grown up quickly, under the coach from Pigeon Creek. Mack Wood, a proud hard-working man, had taught the Tigers well. And their exploits had been told of, across the hill and dell.

But, Andy, they said, was just too good, to ever lose a game. And their streak of 53 straight wins had earned them wealth and fame. The Tigers, on the other hand, had twice tasted defeat. And knew too well that feeling - was all but none too sweet.

A jam-packed crowd was at the game. The bands played loud and clear, and the cheerleaders had no trouble in getting their fans to cheer. The Bulldogs fans were calm and quiet, and seemed sure of a win. While the Elba fans were hoping they would pull through once again.

And the spotlight was now on Elba, as they claimed their moment of fame. But their running plays gained little, and two passes they did fail. Andy took the Tiger punt and their linemen ripped and tore. Hugh holes in the Elba defense, as the Bulldogs moved in for a score.

The Elba fans sat stunned, disbelieving the lightning quick tally. But the Tigers were only angered, and set their minds to

The Elba offense was now rolling, and the team was doing good. And went ahead 14-7 on a pass, from Marler to Wood. The Tigers were hungry, however, and only wanted more. And stunned the favored Bulldogs by adding another score!

Andy scored first in the second half to get back in the game. But the Tigers were still in charge, and the Bulldogs they did tame. Elba ignored the pressure, and refused to falter or fold. And showed the pride they take, in wearing the good ole Black and Gold.

The Tiger "fense could not be stopped, as it rolled in the final fray. And the spotlight was now on Elba, as they claimed their moment of fame. The crowd was cheering, the band was playing, and neither wanted to stop. As the clock ticked down to zero, with the Tigers still on top.

Oh, somewhere in this beautiful land the sun-sets shining bright. The band is playing somewhere and somewhere hearts are light. The somewhere must be Elba, for here life is a treat. But there is no joy in Andy - BECAUSE THE BULLDOGS HAVE BEEN BEAT!

We're Number 1! Elba students give Don Horstead (33) a victory ride off the field following the Tigers 34-19 win over Andalusia.

Whoa! Elba's Jeff Stewart (44) is stopped for a short gain, one of the few times all night!

Gary Bradshaw (80) kicks the extra-point to tie the game at 7-7 in the first quarter.

Elba fullback Jeff Stewart (44) heads upfield after blasting thru a large hole in the Andalusia defense. Stewart rushed for 165 yards in the Tigers' big win over the Bulldogs.

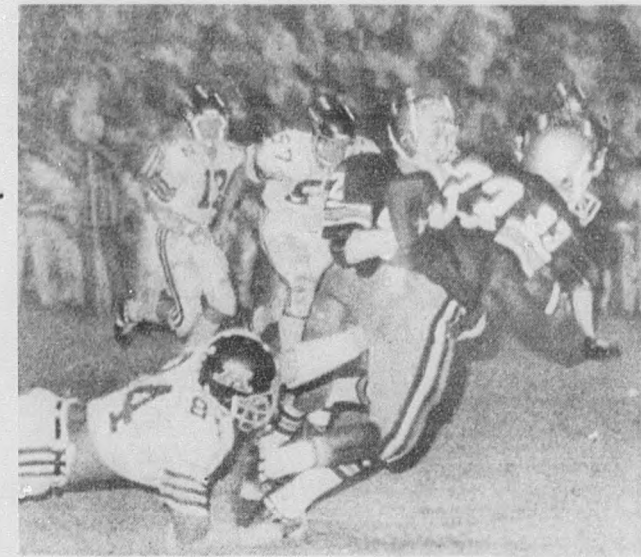

Linebacker Russ Wood (89) stops Andalusia's Leon Hattaway for no gain. Wood, the mainstay of the Tiger defense made 10 tackles in the game and had 3 assists.

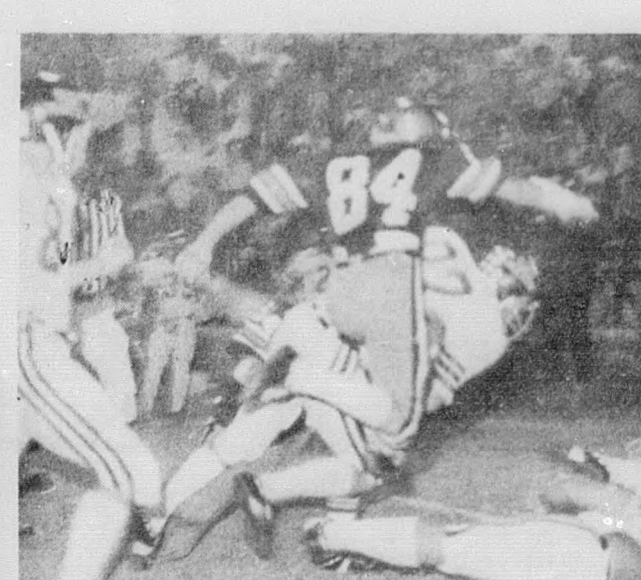

Mike Harrelson (41) finds clear sailing down the sidelines after picking off an Andalusia pass late in the game.

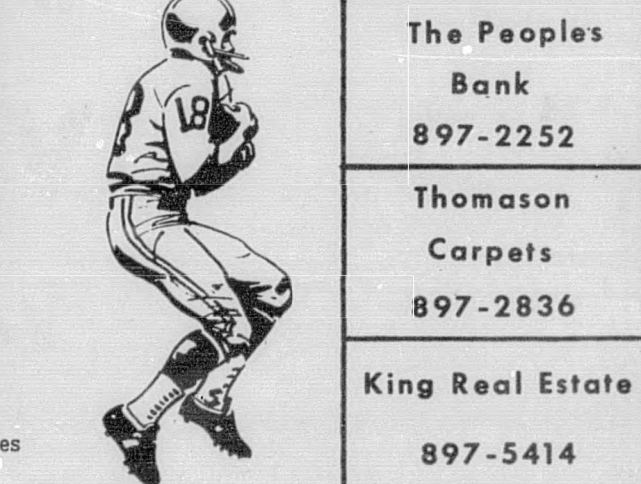

Lovely majorette Vonda Marler performed with the Marching Tigers at halftime as the band turned in another super performance.

So long! Don Horstead (33) breaks away from the grasps of an Andy defender en route to a big gain.

Elba's Bobby Hall (84) leaps on over an Andalusia blocker to help Greg Ellenburg (54) bring down Andy's Bill Anthony (85).

HEALTH FOR ALL

ALABAMA LUNG ASSOCIATION

FIGHTING LUNG DISEASE
How does the flu virus reproduce itself? What keeps the lungs from collapsing? Why do so many premature babies have such dangerously prolonged pauses in breathing? These and other critical questions are under investigation by doctors of medical scientists sponsored by research grants from the American Lung Association, THE CHRISTMAS SEAL PEOPLE.

Although the lung association is primarily an educational organization, these highly specialized grants provide monies to young investigators and stimulate further avenues of research.

Several of the studies focus intensively on the materials that make up a substance, called surfactant, that coats the air sacs of the lungs. It is in the 300 million air sacs where the miracle essential to life must occur: the exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide. But without enough surfactant, physical changes in the substance itself can cause a collapse in the air sacs.

Today 47 million Americans suffer from chronic respiratory diseases. Conducting research to find out more about how the lungs defend themselves and why these defenses break down is only part of the solution. Convincing people to protect their lungs, by quitting smoking, cleaning up the air, seeking prompt medical attention when infections occur, is another vital part of any solution. Lung associations are promoting both solutions.

To help continue the fight against lung disease on a wide variety of fronts, give to your Alabama Lung Association, P. O. Box 904, Dothan, Alabama 36602. It's a matter of life and death.

Elba Council Upholds Suspension

Police Chief Johnston

The Elba City Council upheld the suspension of Elba Police Chief M. W. Johnston Tuesday night, three months and seven days after Mayor Robert Folsom had suspended Johnston for insubordination.

During this three-month period, there was little discussion before the unanimous vote. The council members were told that Johnston had begun work at another job.

No action was taken on removing the "Acting" from the title of Acting Chief Max Rayborn, nor was any other person offered for the job. Members of the council discussed the situation with Rayborn, who is getting the $13,400 pay of the police chief and has the authority, but is still "acting chief".

Councilman Jimmy Wise asked Rayborn if he would consider moving to Elba from his home in Crenshaw County, if selected to serve as chief. Rayborn said he couldn't afford to move, having his home there, and farming part time.

Councilman John W. Sharr-pless said, "I can't convince myself I am doing right by voting for a chief not living in Elba. You (Rayborn) know my feelings about you the fine job you are doing, but I still feel uneasy about doing this."

Rayborn said he understood and it was a decision for the council to make, but he just couldn't afford to move. George L. Collier was re-appointed to another term on the Elba Hospital Board by unanimous vote.

Mrs. Doris Taylor spoke on behalf of the Elba Library Board and asked the council for an increased salary increase for Mrs. Mary Dowling. She also asked for funds to pay six magazine subscriptions and $40 a month for new books. The council approved these but deferred any action on buying a $215 book drop, suggesting she wait until other things the city are working on are resolved.

Fire Chief Lloyd Driggers was present and asked about the policy of buying only unleaded gas for city pumps. He noted this would ruin the fire trucks. Mayor Robert Folsom agreed and noted several other city vehicles were in the same class and it would be necessary to maintain at least one tank of high octane gas. The council agreed.

Rayborn reported that fines totaling $3906.50 were collected last month. He said this was unusually high due to the heavy fines on the film-film artist. The parking meters also netted $114, according to Rayborn.

He reported that police officers Jessie Carley and Frank Thomas had both resigned and requested permission to hire Freddie Hanchey, who had been working as an auxiliary officer. Hanchey was approved.

A motion by Wise to give the cable TV people 90 days to get their equipment off the Elba poles was approved by the council. Wise noted that due to the poor service

35th District Legionnaires To Meet

The 35th District Legionnaires and Auxiliary will meet at the Elba Post on Monday, November 13, at 7:30 p.m.

This will be observed as the Thanksgiving meeting, and Post members will serve the traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

New Tower Dedicated For Scouts

A new observation tower was dedicated last Saturday, November 4, at Camp Humming Hills Girl Scout Camp, near Elba.

The tower is 30 feet tall, and was the combined efforts of materials and workmanship of Alfab, Inc. of Enterprise, and Dorsey Trailers of Elba. The plaque was donated by McKinnon Sign Company, represented by Mike McKinnon.

Present were Mr. Fred Clark, Chairman of the Camp Development Committee; Mr. Bob Sanford of Alfab; Mr. Dave Logan of Dorsey Trailers; Probate Judge James L. Sawyer; Ms. Sue Strong and Ms. Ellen Astory, Girl Scout Council representatives; Mrs. Louella Henderson, a long-time Scout supporter, coordinator, etc., and other interested citizens, as well as Scouts and Brownies.

Camp Humming Hills consists of 267 acres of beautiful rolling pine timberland, and is located five miles northeast of Elba. It was purchased from the profit of Girl Scout cookie sales.

Elba Band Rated Superior

The Elba High School "Marching Tigers" band was one of 26 bands to compete in the Enterprise Marching Contest on Saturday, November 7, and the Marching Tigers received a total of seven "superior" ratings.

At the completion of the performance the large crowd roared their approval and gave the band a standing ovation!

At the awards presentation the following ratings were given: Drum Major - 1; Color Guard - 1; Majorettes - 1 and Band - 1-1-1 for an overall 1 (or superior).

The Elba Band is under the direction of Linwood Erb and Barry Taff, and has now completed the 1978 marching season.

Martin Gets Plaque For Achievement

Doug Martin of Elba was recently honored by his associates and the management of his district when they selected him as the exceptional life insurance representative of the quarter.

They presented him with a personalized plaque acknowledging the merits of his achievement.

The selection was based not only on the sale of life insurance for the quarter but also on general attitude towards the life insurance business.

Mr. Martin represents Liberty National Life Insurance Company's Enterprise office.

New Voters

Postmaster "Robert Cooper advises that the Elba Post Office will observe Veterans' Day Saturday, November 11. There will be no city or rural delivery, and no window service available.

They presented him with a personalized plaque acknowledging the merits of his achievement.
